DAY ONE

TITHE BARN & THE SHAMBLES

Tithe Barn

Start at the 14th-century Tithe Barn, one the largest and finest in England then head along the leafy river or over the medieval packhorse bridge, past the Second World War pillbox, and through Barton Orchard. The latter route brings you out onto Church Street, Bradford's most elegant. Pop into tiny 11th Century St Laurence Church – it's one of the most unaltered Saxon buildings in Britain. Further along is Holy Trinity Church (of Norman origin) and gorgeous Church House, a Palladian mansion built around 1730.

Lunch at Timbrell's Yard then head to the small but encyclopaedic Bradford-on-Avon Museum - it's a great place to learn about the town, then amble over the old Town Bridge – where a small prison cell stands atop one of the arches – and nose along the Shambles, a narrow alley lined with little independent stores - every lane is worth a look, hiding vintage clothing outfitters, cheese shops, and homewares boutiques.

Overnight Dine at, The Boat House then spend the night at Woolley Grange, a Jacobean manor-turned-hotel.

River Avon

DAY TWO

KENNET AND AVON CANAL & IFORD MANOR

The Bradford on Avon Wheel is a 68km network of waymarked and interconnected hiking trails encircling the town. There's also the Kennet & Avon Canal for miles of easy, flat walking.

Head west along the towpath and you'll discover the aqueducts of Avoncliff and Dundas. Else head east to the village of Staverton, with its weavers' cottages and marina, and on to Trowbridge – either walk out and back along the waterway, admiring the barges and birds, or make a loop to return via fields and quiet country lanes.

Lunch at the charming Canal Trust Cafe, the perfect place for a bacon bap, homemade burger, hot soup or cream tea, then head out to Iford Manor Gardens, an Italianate idyll hidden in rural Wiltshire, then dine at the Bunch of Grapes back in Bradford on Avon.

Overnight For somewhere completely different, stay at The Farm Camp's bell tents and toast marshmallows under the stars.

Kennet & Avon Canal

DAY THREE

COURTS GARDEN

Start with a slap-up breakfast at the Swan Hotel or avocado toast and harissa eggs at Timbrell's Yard. If it's a Sunday morning, this will provide good fuel for the weekly Bradford-on-Avon Walking Tour or alternatively head to Holt – 2.5 miles east – to roam around the National Trust's Courts Garden, an intriguing cluster of 'outdoor rooms', spanning formal topiary, lily ponds, winding paths, a stone temple, an arboretum and Rose Garden teasshop. Lunch by the lakeside at the Field Kitchen in Holt or enjoy produce plucked from the garden at the Woolley Grange Hotel.

The Kennet & Avon Canal Trust run great-value trips aboard the Barbara McLellan barge, either through the lock to the aqueduct at Avoncliff or the tree-fringed route to Hilperton. Enjoy cake and a cuppa on the open bow or nip into ye olde Bridge Tea Rooms after you disembark – this wonderfully wonky establishment is a double winner of the UK Tea Guild's 'Top Tea Place'.

Bradford on Avon

is perfectly set in the dramatic Avon valley in Wiltshire, only a few miles from the World Heritage City of Bath; it is a combination of river, canal, history and architecture of true character.
