Great West Way[®] Discoverer pass

 GREAT
WEST WAY[®]

Great West Way Discoverer pass

The Great West Way is a 125-mile touring route between London, Bath and Bristol, based on ancient routes, roaming through idyllic countryside, quaint villages and elegant towns.

Get around the Great West Way on the rail and bus network using the Great West Way Discoverer pass. It includes unlimited Off-Peak train travel from London Paddington along the route to Bristol Temple Meads via Reading and Swindon, or Newbury and Pewsey, with options to branch off towards Salisbury via Westbury (or London Waterloo to Salisbury with South Western Railway). It also includes unlimited travel on the bus services along the routes listed in this leaflet.

Choose from a one day or seven days ticket to enjoy your Great West Way adventure.

How to buy your pass

You can purchase the Great West Way Discoverer pass online at GWR.com or from your local station. They come in the form of a standard orange ticket, clearly showing the route you have purchased and whether it is valid for one day or seven.

If you are travelling from overseas, international passes (similar to a BritRail pass) can be purchased online at ACPRail.com or via your travel agent, where discounted international rates apply and with no off-peak travel time restrictions.
