

Mary Shelley's
HOUSE OF FRANKENSTEIN™

MUSEUM OF MARY SHELLEY & FRANKENSTEIN

Address: 37 Gay Street Bath, BA1 2NT

OVERVIEW

Discover Mary Shelley's House of Frankenstein in Bath, an award-winning, multi-sensory museum located in a 300-year-old Georgian townhouse. The museum explores Mary Shelley's life and time in Bath, her turbulent relationship with poet Percy Bysshe Shelley and their connections with contemporaries such as Lord Byron.

Through immersive exhibits, visitors learn how her experiences shaped the writing of Frankenstein and examine the novel's lasting cultural impact.

The attraction also features themed Escape Rooms, offering an interactive extension to the museum experience.

VIP GUIDED TOUR WITH THE FOUNDER

Step inside Mary Shelley's House of Frankenstein and enjoy a welcome cocktail on arrival before embarking on a highly entertaining, intimate one-hour tour led by the co-founder. Discover the incredible life story of Mary Shelley, her time in Bath and uncover hidden stories and secrets not on display in the museum.

This exclusive experience offers a rare chance to learn how the attraction was created and the opportunity to look beyond the exhibits and connect with the world of Frankenstein in a unique way.
