The Bridge Tea Rooms

The Bridge Tea Rooms

Double Winners of The Tea Guild's Top UK Tea Place and the Home o Afternoon Teas: Judged as 'near perfect' and awarded The UK's Top Tea Place by the prestigious UK Tea Guild The Bridge Tea Rooms offers the very best in traditionally British Afternoon Teas, lunches and light meals throughout the day.

The Victorian Tea Rooms

The afternoon ritual of serving tea has been developed to a fine art here and is so accomplished that the Bridge Tea Rooms has been recognized as excellent by the prestigious UK Tea Guild for many years. Delicate bone china, the finest leaf teas, and friendly staff in Victorian costumes serving home-made cakes, pastries and sandwiches. Housed in a former blacksmith's cottage dating from 1502, the Bridge Tea Rooms positively oozes atmosphere.

New for 2026 – history welcome talk – pre-booked groups can request a short welcome talk from owner, who can inform guests about the former blacksmith's cottage built in 1502 and highlight the original features that can be seen today.
