WELCOME TO THE CASTLE HOTEL, WINDSOR

A TESTAMENT TO TIMELESS DESIGN

QUINTESSENTIALLY
ENGLISH,
EXCEPTIONALLY RESTORED

An exquisite building, steeped in history, the Castle Hotel, Windsor – MGallery Hotel Collection perches majestically by Windsor Castle, opposite Sir Christopher Wren's Windsor Guildhall, on the classic English High Street.

Its humble beginnings are traced right back to 1528, when George Pennington, landlord of Mermaid Inn, created the hotel's own currency, the Pennington Penny, to help with a shortage of small coins.

One hundred years later, the hotel was issued a Royal Warrant, becoming an official posting inn. After a century of success, the hotel was renamed The Castle Hotel and was soon considered one of the most-loved inns in the area. And as you can see, it's a reputation it retains today more than ever. Exceptionally restored, the Castle Hotel retains every sense of its historic charm and character. This magnificent boutique hotel is fondly remembered for centuries by a host of distinguished guests – and its splendour remains adored by the local and international visitors of today.

TAILOR-MADE FOR MODERN GUESTS

To retain the atmosphere and opulence of the hotel's illustrious past, the Castle Hotel, Windsor - MGallery Hotel Collection has been affectionately restored with modern flourishes. Perfect for today's guests.

Past and present come together through a timeless combination of patterns, details and touches. Guests will experience a journey through time as they walk from lobby to room to restaurant. Every inch revealing a vivid history, waiting to be discovered again and again.

Our 11 state-of-the-art meeting rooms, with a maximum capacity of 400, make the Castle Hotel an unforgettable venue for any gathering or event, business or leisure. As for romantic getaways, special family celebrations or weddings worthy of royalty, the Castle Hotel's special story and picturesque backdrop provide the perfect setting for every occasion.

A CREATIVE TAKE ON CLASSIC BRITISH FOOD

Experience the finest dining in a tasteful setting. And discover why the Duke of Wellington chose to dine at Castle Hotel after his victory at the Battle of Waterloo.

Perhaps it was to do with the Castle Hotel's enchanting blend of rich history and sophistication – creatively complementing classic British food. Or maybe it was because we only source the finest local ingredients: from the ripest artisan cheeses to the freshest seafood the Atlantic has to offer.

Meanwhile, our prestigious bar serves perfectly mixed cocktails and a superb selection of wines, as well as traditional teas and full-flavoured craft ales. It's also the ideal spot to catch the famous Changing of the Guard along Windsor's picture-perfect main street.
